To Whom It May Concern:

As the principal of HanTan Tzuchi School, I am delighted to recommend to you a stellar member of our teaching staff, Ms. Huang, and to write this letter on her behalf. Ms. Huang has taught Chinese and English at our school for half an year. She is one of our most popular and effective instructors and has already won several teaching awards in our school.

Ms. Huang is a master of all of the ingredients of successful teaching, especially the ability to inspire students to make rapid and brilliant progress in their studies. She came to us directly upon completion of her bachelor' s degree, but immediately settled down to the teaching issues. Ms. Huang has her own teaching method to internalize knowledge into students' minds, with full of patience even facing some students who have serious problem. The students in our school get many progresses of test in Chinese and English.

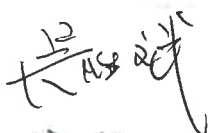

She is highly professional in both teaching theory and teaching practice. In class, she value the natural reaction and communication capability of students. Usually, she prepares contextual setting activities before class begin and allocates role-playing characters to students in order to inspire their natural comprehension to Chinese and English words and grammars. As for phonology, this is also one of the parts emphasized by her. She often uses some teaching materials like vivid pictures, videos and gestures to teach students make correct pronounce. So we very appreciate her effort on classes. Before she came the capability of students' English sank into polarization with obviously good ones and bad ones. With Ms.Huang' s devotions, the situation turned better, and the pass rates rose from 45.7% to 68.7%.

Ms.Huang views herself as the transporter of knowledge and the life tutor of students. This is reflected in the way she teaches and also in the way her students respond. Reaction to Ms. Huang' s classes has been overwhelmingly positive. More than once it has been reported to me that students have been full of classroom listening to her lessons. Ms.Huang also sets herself as a life guide for students, which often can be seen in her class content inserted with some principles which give students enlightenment for their lives. She devotes herself to teaching and leading students to a higher level.

I strongly believe that with all the excellent achievements and qualities of teaching and managing as well as her personal characters, Ms. Huang definitely can also be a competent Chinese teacher in Russia and spares no effort to work for you.

Sincerely,
