I write to you today to recommend Criston Slaughter for the English teaching abroad position with your organization.

I have known Cris for the better part of six years and he has always been a great friend and class mate to me. Cris is well spoken in a variety of different languages. I have heard him speak a variety of languages including French, Portuguese, Russian, Spanish, Japanese, and he even began learning Arabic when I first met him.

Aside from the variety of languages he speaks, Cris is very personable and has excellent communication skills. He has the ability to spark a conversation with anyone and is capable of getting his point across, to someone who knows little to no English, with no miscommunication.

I believe Cris would be very beneficial to your organization, given his personality, communication skills, and multilingualism. I hope that you find this letter informative and assist you with the selection process for this position.

Sincerely,

-Mohamad Al Marastani
