To Whom It May Concern,

Theodore “Ted” McIntire was an instructor in ELS Language Centers from the fall of 2012 to the end of 2013. Ted is a motivated and enthusiastic teacher.

Ted carried a wide variety of courses. In the morning section, he had beginner and intermediate structure/speaking classes and reading/writing classes, while in the afternoon he taught all skills and levels.

The combination of his training in and his personal interest and investment in international education was a true asset to our center.

Ted is versatile in his approach to teaching. A student-centered teacher, he is always looking for new ways to reach all learners. He combines traditional and new methods. His meticulous preparation particularly stands out. As a result, his students are apt to be engaged every minute of the lesson.

Ted was a supportive faculty member who was always flexible with scheduling and offered his expertise to his colleagues.

While at our center, Ted was involved in all aspects of student life. He attended social events on campus and actively looked for opportunities for our students to learn beyond the classroom.

If you have any questions about Ted McIntire’s practice at ELS Language Centers, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Zita Bodonyi
